Counseling

We offer confidential*, professional counseling to you and members of your household. Counseling is provided in person or via telehealth.

No authorization is needed to schedule an appointment at your convenience. You and members of your household can seek counseling to assist with:

- Stress Management
- Marital/Relationship
- Support
- Grief/Loss
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Alcohol or Drug Use
- Child and Adolescent Issues
- Parenting Support
- Career and Work-Related Support

We also offer access to a psychiatrist. For more information about our psychiatry service, talk with your counselor or call the EAP office at 215-257-6556.

 Please note: Unless you sign a release of information, it is against the law for St. Luke's Penn Foundation's EAP to tell your employer that you sought counseling.*

Discounted Legal Services

Employees who are part of a St. Luke's Penn Foundation EAP benefit by receiving a free, 15-minute phone consultation and a discount on legal services such as:

- Wills/Living Wills
- Powers of Attorney
- Estate Planning
- Divorce, Custody, and Support Issues

For a full list of discounted legal services, call the EAP Office at 215-257-6556.

Crisis Support

We are available during regular business hours to support you if you have a crisis. Our hours are Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, 8:30 am – 8:00 pm and Wednesday and Friday, 8:30 am – 5:00 pm. After hours, St. Luke's Penn Foundation crisis professionals can support immediate needs until our office reopens.
